ON MARRIAGE

Marriage is divinely ordained by God, it is a covenant relationship in which a man and woman vow to love one another before God unto death do they part.

Genesis 2:4 tells us —“therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.” When a couple consummates their marriage they are entering into a “covenant relationship” that is supernaturally bonded as one spiritually, hence “one flesh,” with two different personalities and characteristics working together for the unity of their life together and working together for God’s Kingdom.

Unfortunately too many couples allow outside influences and distractions to infiltrate their covenant relationship. The enemy, Satan, loves nothing better than to destroy the unity of marriage. Satan’s goal is to divide and conquer marriages, and he will use anything and anyone to bring death to a marriage.

Couples have a choice! They can decide together not to allow outside distractions and influences to come into their covenant relationship. God put you together!

When couples align their marriage according to the established roles outlined in God’s Word, they will find strength together to fight the tactics from the enemy.

Wives submitting to their husbands doesn’t mean being a slave, it means to honor and respect their husband and to defend his character. Husbands loving their wife as self and helping around the house doesn’t make you henpecked, it makes you God’s man.

Marriages operating within the designed structure as God details in His Word will be protected and blessed by God. Being obedient to God and his commandments are not hard, it is a matter of trusting God at His written Word. God doesn’t lie! He says what He means and means what He says. So do you want a healthy and blessed marriage? Then believe God’s written Word. He will help you get through the hard times and bless you with good times.

FINANCIAL FITNESS—MIN. GEORGETTA HEAD

Let's talk about "counting the cost!" You have $50 dollars until payday and payday is a week away! You are invited to have dinner with friends over the weekend – what should you do?

Better yet you are leaving through a magazine or watching a Home Shopping channel and you are tempted by what you see and pull out a credit card to charge the item – did you count the cost or will you impulsively purchase the item – do you really need it?

God wants us to have our desires, but He doesn't want us craving for things we do not need or use once we receive them. The Word says to "count the cost!" Luke 14:28 tells us: "For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?" In other words, we are to know the outcome of our financial decision making and to be prepared at all times. If you decide to spend your last $50.00, which is Plan A, what is your Plan B? Do you have a backup plan to get back and forth to work after spending your "last $50.00?" If you purchase that magazine item or Home Shopping Channel product, can you afford to pay the credit card back in a timely manner, can you afford the addition of the interest incurred. What plan do you have in place if something should happen and you fail to make your credit card payments? This is called counting the cost, having Plan A and Plan B in place to eliminate impulse spending, and to plan before spending.

Now this doesn't mean we have to be stingy or afraid to spend money, this means we need to have balance in spending and become accountable for what God entrusted to us. As we trust God for our finances, He will reward us, and when He rewards us, we are also instructed to save for self and learn to bless others through tithes and offerings.

Learn to follow God's commandments about becoming a "good steward/manager of what He has entrusted to you. As you are faithful in the small areas of your life, God will bless you and enlarge your territory – remember the prayer of Jabez? God says Jabez was more "honorable than his brothers." God honors faithfulness, are you faithful in the areas of your finances?

Do you want increase? Do you want to be rid of lack? Then become honorable with the money, property, and ALL areas of your finance and God will bless you as you are "able" to handle what He has for you!

Remember, we are to "glorify" God in all we do, are you glorifying God in your spending?

If you give, you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full measure, pressed down, shaken together to make room for more and running over. Whatever measure you use in giving—it will be used to measure what is given back to you.

Luke 6:38

It is empowering to know where you are financially, because then you will be able to make informed choices!

POEM—JESUS IS COMING SOON — ELDER CHARLES HEAD

Jesus is coming soon—no man knows the day or hour. He's coming soon, we must do all within God's power. I see the signs all around—the attitudes of the people, the conversation of most is not Heaven bound.

It's time to awake—Christ's return is very near, we must get our house in order all with Godly fear. The Gospel must be preached to every part of the earth, we must do it with urgency all of men's soul is at an all time worth.

The church must use every opportunity at hand, let the world know that you are God's fan. People are hurting and without hope, we must tell them that Jesus is the scope.

Get a burden in your heart today, let the Holy Spirit tell you what to say. It will be all worth it one day; do it all while you pray.

Seek the Lord with all your heart, that's the Father's purpose from the start. Fall on your knees in prayer, the world needs you out there.

Don't be ashamed before the Father some day, because you decided to do things your way.

Obey God's voice today, do His will I say. Then one day when He calls your name, you won't bow your head in shame.

BIBLE FACTS — ELDER CHARLES HEAD

Did you know that Paul on his way to Rome by ship was shipwrecked, bitten by a poisonous snake on an island after the wreck, shook the snake off into a fire and continued his journey. After all the obstacles Paul took the time to pray for the sick and healing took place on the same island (Acts 27:27-44 & Acts 28:1-9).

Did you know that the prophet Habakkuk was determined to rejoice in the Lord regardless of all adversity? He praised God for who He is and knew where his strength and source came from, this should be an example for us all to follow (Habakkuk 3:14-19).

Did you know that Joshua by faith asked for the sun to remain longer in order for more daylight until the battle was finished and God heard him and made it the longest day in recorded history (Joshua 10:12-14).

Did you know one of the ways to determine if you love God according to I John, we must love our brother first (fellowman) - (I John 4:20-21)

USES FOR CUCUMBERS

Cucumbers contain most of the vitamins you need every day, just one cucumber contains Vitamin B1, Vitamin B2, Vitamin B3, Vitamin B5, Vitamin B6, Folic Acid, Vitamin C, Calcium, Iron, Magnesium, Phosphorus, Potassium and Zinc.

Feeling tired in the afternoon, put down the caffeinated soda and pick up a cucumber. Cucumbers are a good source of B Vitamins and Carbohydrates that can provide that quick pick-me-up that can last for hours.

Tired of your bathroom mirror fogging up after a shower? Try rubbing a cucumber slice along the mirror, it will eliminate the fog and provide a soothing, spa-like fragrance.

Are grubs and slugs ruining your planting beds? Place a few slices in a small pie tin and your garden will be free of pests all season long. The chemicals in the cucumber react with the aluminum to give off a scent undetectable to humans but drive garden pests crazy and make them flee the area.

Looking for a fast and easy way to remove cellulite before going out or to the pool? Try rubbing a slice or two of cucumbers along your problem area for a few minutes, the phytochemicals in the cucumber cause the collagen in your skin to tighten, firming up the outer layer and reducing the visibility of cellulite. Works great on wrinkles too!

Want to avoid a hangover or terrible headache? Eat a few cucumber slices before going to bed and wake up refreshed and headache free. Cucumbers contain enough sugar, B vitamins and electrolytes to replenish essential nutrients the body lost, keeping everything in equilibrium, avoiding both a hangover and headache!!

Looking to fight off that afternoon or evening snacking binge? Cucumbers have been used for centuries and often used by European trappers, traders and explorers for quick meals to thwart off starvation.

Have an important meeting or job interview and you realize that you don't have enough time to polish your shoes? Rub a freshly cut cucumber over the shoe, its chemicals will provide a quick and durable shine that not only looks great but also repels water.

Out of WD 40 and need to fix a squeaky hinge? Take a cucumber slice and rub it along the problematic hinge, and voila, the squeak is gone!

Stressed out and don't have time for massage, facial or visit to the spa? Cut up an entire cucumber and place it in a boiling pot of water, the chemicals and nutrients from the cucumber will react with the boiling water and be released in the steam, creating a soothing, relaxing aroma that has been shown to reduce stress in new mothers and college students during final exams.

Just finish a business lunch and realize you don't have gum or mints? Take a slice of cucumber and press it to the roof of your mouth with your tongue for 30 seconds to eliminate bad breath, the phytochemicals will kill the bacteria in your mouth responsible for causing bad breath.

SLEEPING THROUGH THE STORM

Years ago, a farmer owned land along the Atlantic sea coast.

He constantly advertised for hired hands. Most people were reluctant to work on farms along the Atlantic. They dreaded the awful storms that raged across the Atlantic, wreaking havoc on the buildings and crops.

As the farmer interviewed applicants for the job, he received a steady stream of refusals. Finally, a short, thin man, well past middle age, approached the farmer "are you a good farm hand?" the farmer asked him. "Well, I can sleep when the wind blows," answered the little man.

Although puzzled by this answer, the farmer, desperate for help, hired him. The little man worked well around the farm, busy from dawn to dusk, and the farmer felt satisfied with the man's work. Then one night the wind howled loudly in from offshore. Jumping out of bed, the farmer grabbed a lantern and rushed next door to the hired hand's sleeping quarters. He shook the little man and yelled, "get up! A storm is coming! Tie things down before they blow away!" The little man rolled over in bed and said firmly, "no sir. I told you, I can sleep when the wind blows."

Enraged by the response, the farmer was tempted to fire him on the spot. Instead, he hurried outside to prepare for the storm. To his amazement, he discovered that all of the haystacks had been covered with tarpaulins. The cows were in the barn, the chickens were in the coops, and the doors were all barred, the shutters were tightly secured. Everything was tied down.

Nothing could blow away. The farmer then understood what his hired hand meant, so he returned to his bed to also sleep while the wind blew.

When you're prepared, spiritually, mentally, and physically, you have nothing to fear. Can you sleep when the Wind blows through your life? The hired hand in the story was able to sleep because he had secured the farm against the storm.

12 STEPS TO LIVE BY

Step 1: Make up your mind to be happy. Learn to find pleasure in simple things.

Step 2: Make the best of your circumstances. No one has everything, and everyone has something of sorrow intermingled with gladness of life. The trick is to make laughter outweigh the tears.

Step 3: Don't take yourself too seriously. Don't think that somehow you should be protected from misfortunes that befall other people.

Step 4: You can't please everybody. Don't let criticism worry you.

Step 5: Don't let your neighbor set your standards. Be yourself.

Step 6: Do the things you enjoy doing, but stay out of debt.

Step 7: Don't borrow trouble. Imaginary things are harder to bear than real ones.

Step 8: Since hate poisons the soul, do not cherish jealousy. Avoid people who make you unhappy and pray for them.

Step 9: Have many interests. If you can't travel, read about new places.

Step 10: Don't hold postmortems. Don't spend your time brooding over sorrow or mistakes. Don't be one who never gets over things.

Step 11: Do what you can for those less fortunate than yourself.

Step 12: Keep busy at something. A busy person never has time to be unhappy. God has plenty for us to do—Father God says in Matthew 9:37 “..... ‘The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few.’ Become a ‘laborer for God, the rewards are wonderful.’”

PEACE WITHIN YOUR SOUL — ELDER CHARLES S. HEAD

That which you've been longing for, is peace within your soul. You've searched high and low, but now it's about to unfold.

Even though you looked around you, peace was very near. It's when you cry to the Father, He'll see your every tear.

You see, the Father has been waiting, His arms stretched out to you. But you were so busy worrying, you didn't have a clue.

He says: “come, unto all ye that are heavy laden and I will give you rest,” it's up to you today, will you finally pass the test? You need not search any longer, it is God who will fill your hunger.

If your confusion has grown old, let God speak peace to your soul. Don't put off till tomorrow what you can do today. Your peace within you is only a prayer away.

When you need courage to obey, let the spirit have His way. So, what are you waiting for? Time is running out, peace within your soul is what it's all about.

Search no longer, for that which will not satisfy, the peace that God will give you, man can not buy.

Jesus is the answer, (that you must know) obey and be blessed and He will do the rest.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR— MIN. GEORGETTA HEAD

The Word instructs us to “love our neighbor as we love our self.” (Matthew 22:37-40) “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.’”

As one reads these scriptures, it must be noticed that love begins at home, love must begin with self! If you do not love yourself, how can you love others? If you are having a bad day or going through hard times, you may treat others how you are feeling inside. Your neighbor may not know what is happening to you and will think you are a difficult person to be around. So what is the answer for “loving your neighbor as self.” First invite Father God into your life and into your situations. Father God has an open door policy for His children and He wants to help us to live whole, happy lives loving one another as He loves us. Allow God to transform your bruised or broken heart so that you can be the “light” he has chosen you to be to others. Learn to forgive others also, because the only one that gets hurt is the one holding the grudge of unforgiveness.

Father God wants us to love one another so that we can be an encourager to others. Encouraging someone going through a rough time can make a difference in that person’s life, it may be just what that person needs to help them out of a tough situation and to find God for future life issues.

Be kind to one another always willing to help in time of need. Father God is always there for us and this is a character trait that He wants us to imitate from Him.

Loving thy neighbor doesn’t keep a list of wrongdoings, but allows love to cover a multitude of sins. God spreads His love over you! So follow His example and spread some smiles and love to someone today!

FAMILY CORNER — ELDER CHARLES HEAD

The topic this quarter is “Know Your Identity.” Unfortunately, many people today do not know their identity and purpose in life. They spend many years following someone else’s identity rather than the identity God gave them. They become followers or imitators of their environment which leads many in the wrong direction.

Our heavenly Father allowed us all to be born with a personality of our own and we all have talents that belong to God for His glory. It is up to us adults to lead by example this generation and help them to go in the right direction according to the abilities that God has enabled them. Some of the examples for daily living should be:

Put God First: Proverbs 3:5-6 declares trust in the Lord with all your heart; and lean not unto your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

Identity: Know who you are in Christ! God made you with a purpose and for a purpose, do not let anyone tell you that you are less than them.

Honesty: Always tell the truth. God honors truth.

Integrity: Always keep your word. If you tell someone you are going to help them, show up; and make it a practice to always be on time.

Keep Going: Do not quit so easily. Reach high for the best in whatever you do.

Honor: Respect the Elderly and authority. Do not rebel against authority – God set the law in order with the purpose for us to obey it (Romans 13:1-7).

Mistakes: Learn from your mistakes. Mistakes do not make you a failure, it is only a setback.

Influence: Be careful who you let into your world of influence and watch who you hang out with. Being influenced by the wrong people can cause you years of trouble and heartaches.

Encourage One Another

WOMAN OF THE BIBLE "EVE" —BY GEORGETTA HEAD

Today's topic is about Eve, the first woman created by God. Eve was married to Adam and they both were created in the image of their Father God, after creating them He then blessed them and put them in the Garden of Eden. Adam and Eve shared a wonderful home in the Garden of Eden, better known as Paradise. This home was void of worldly corruption and evil, they had all that pertained to joy and happiness because Father God had blessed them and gave them a unique and wonderful gift – Earth. They were instructed to subdue (control) the Earth and Father God also, gave them dominion (authority) over all the beasts He created and last but not least, they were given the job of maintaining the Garden of Eden. What a wonderful life!

But, that wasn't all they had! They had the honor of personally communing with Father God every day! Can you just imagine, meeting with Father God every day! Father God met with them daily to talk with them, He even taught Adam how to name the animals and how to manage the Garden of Eden. Eve's role was to be a "help mate" for Adam in managing the Garden as God instructed Adam with all that pertained to subduing the Earth and having dominion over all the beasts.

In the Garden were two trees, "the tree of life" and "the tree of knowledge of good and evil." When Father God was teaching Adam on managing the Garden of Eden, He gave Adam one very important instruction about managing the Garden and Adam was to share this information to Eve.

The instruction was as follows: "And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, 'Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.'" (Genesis 2:16-17)

Eve lived happily in the Garden with husband Adam, until one day a sneaky enemy of Father God came into the Garden and tempted Eve. The enemy, the sneaky serpent, the devil, convinced Eve that Father God had lied to her about dying, he also had her believing that Father God was keeping something good from her. Eve had a choice, there were two trees in the midst of the garden, the tree of life, which represented Jesus – life and all that pertained to happiness, truth and life eternal; or the tree of knowledge of good and evil, which represented the world and its evil along with death. Unfortunately, Eve believed the sneaky serpent and ate from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, which brought death – "spiritual death" and eventually natural death, and they lost their home in Paradise – the Garden of Eden.

Now before we start pointing fingers at Eve and calling her names, what choices have you made lately that brought death into your situations, into your finance, or into your relationship with God. Yes, Eve chose wrong by choosing the tree of knowledge of good and evil, but Father God in His mercy had a plan ready. A plan to redeem not only Adam and Eve, but ALL mankind back to them and that plan was His Son Jesus to die on the cross for all mankind's sins. All we have to do is believe in the finished work of Jesus on the Cross and accept Him as our Lord and Savior and we are welcomed back into the family of Father God.

Yes, we made bad choices just like Eve, but God is waiting to forgive us and to welcome us back. Make the choice today to forsake this world's evil and all that it has to offer and accept the "gift" of God – His Son Jesus! He loved you so much He gave His life for you! Don't delay, believe today.

No matter what we are going through,
no matter how long the waiting for answers, of one thing we may be sure. God is faithful.
He keeps His promises.
What He starts,
He finishes . . . including
His perfect work in you.

SERVANT OF GOD— MIN. GEORGETTA HEAD

Melissa Pearce was born and raised in Akron, Ohio where she dedicated her life to the Lord Jesus Christ at the age of six.

After He captivated her heart at this very tender age, she longed to learn more about Him and to share her love for Him with others.

Coming from a large family had a significant role in Melissa's life. It was through her immediate family that God taught her about acceptance, love and wholeness. These character traits that God revealed to her as a child would be applicable in her later life both personally and in her ministry to other "sisters" in Christ.

From a very young age, Melissa has had two passions - Jesus and teaching. Her speaking career started very early in age as she taught her baby dolls and the neighborhood kids about the Lord. She spoke to anyone who would give her an ear. In high school, she taught Sunday school at her local church.

Today, her passion for teaching remains as she teaches women of all ages at her home church, Cornerstone Ministries, in Export, Pennsylvania. She has had the privilege of serving on the Women's Connection Team where she facilitates and coordinates different women's ministry events such as conferences and retreats. When she is not teaching at the church, you will find her ministering and mentoring to young adult women in her home.

At the heart of Melissa's passion is the desire for women to know their identity in Jesus Christ and to see their self-worth through His eyes. She has personally seen how both the external and internal events in life can negatively affect a woman's concept of identity and self-worth. Growing up in a family of eight, she had never anticipated her parents divorcing. Because of the difficulties and stress of this unexpected situation, Melissa found herself starting life over at the young age of 15. She began questioning who she was as she saw the love in home dismantled. At the age of 26, Melissa went through her own divorce situation, again facing feelings of confusion and doubt when it came to her identity.

Other difficult experiences such as the diagnosis of Multiple Sclerosis and the discovery of infertility challenged Melissa to face feelings of inadequacy and insignificance. However, through each one of these circumstances, God remained faithful to her, reinforcing the truths about His acceptance, love and wholeness. It is her heart's desire to help other women see God's faithfulness through life's difficult situations as well.

The Lord's call to encourage, love and minister to the hearts of the women inspired Melissa to establish Enduring Hope Ministries, Inc. in March 2010. Her prayer is for God to use this ministry to reach hearts throughout the world. The name Enduring Hope Ministries came from her foundational belief that Jesus Christ, who is her personal Lord and Savior, is the Alpha and the Omega, the One who can satisfy every need within her being. His faithfulness has proven undisputable, and she rests in the assurance of knowing that He is her Enduring Hope.

Melissa has been blessed by her wonderful husband, Ron. They are more than marital partners, also having been business partners for the past ten years. Now as God has led them to embark on a new journey, Ron will be serving alongside Melissa through Enduring Hope Ministries. Melissa and Ron enjoy biking, walking, entertaining at their pool, and vacationing in the Bahamas (where they were married) and in Ocean City, Maryland.

God hasn't called us to be successful, but rather faithful!

WORDS OF EXHORTATION —PSALM 119:1-8

Blessed are the undefiled in the way,
Who walk in the law of the LORD!
Blessed are those who keep His testimonies,
Who seek Him with the whole heart!

They also do no iniquity;
They walk in His ways.
You have commanded us

To keep Your precepts diligently.
Oh, that my ways were directed
To keep Your statutes!

Then I would not be ashamed,
When I look into all Your commandments.
I will praise You with uprightness of heart,
When I learn Your righteous judgments.
I will keep Your statutes;
Oh, do not forsake me utterly!

TIPS FOR ERASING DEBT

Face up to what you owe. Eliminating debt begins with honesty. Sit down and list all that you owe.

Set up an emergency fund. Set aside a certain amount of money each pay period for the unexpected.

Be consistent in repaying your debt. Call creditors if needed and let them know your intent. Don't give up!

Track your money. Start a budget and be consistent in tracking your expenses this will stop impulse spending.

Inspire yourself. Imagine yourself debt free and living a life without creditors harassing you.

Go on a cash only diet. Use cash for all purchase, this will eliminate the temptation to impulse buy. No money left, no spending.

Leave credit cards at home. This will eliminate unnecessary purchases and temptations..

Adopt a no excuse strategy. Do whatever it takes, legally, to get out of debt. Get a second job and have a garage sale to sell things you no longer need.

Teach yourself the word NO! This will save you thousands of dollars in the future!

Remember to Tithe. Tithe with a spirit of thanksgiving and with a willing & loving heart.

Pay self. Start a saving account and learn to pay self.

Reward self. When you meet a goal of paying off a credit card, celebrate, but within your means.

Ask Father God. Ask Him for help, He is a creative thinker!

Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Proverbs 4:26

What Must I Do to Be Saved?

"Jesus said unto him, "I am the way, the truth and the life, no man comes to the Father but by Me." (John 14:16)

All you need to do is pray the "sinner's prayer" below!!

Dear Jesus, I come to you today as a lost sinner. I am asking that you save my soul and cleanse me from all sin. I know that I need help and that I can't save myself.

I believe that you are the Son of God. Forgive me for my sins and all wrong doings I have done to others and help me to forgive those who have hurt me. I believe that you died on the Cross for my sins and the sins of the world. I accept You, Jesus, into my heart as my Lord and Savior.

I confess with my mouth the Lord Jesus, as my Savior and believe in my heart that God has raised Him from the dead and You are now seated in Heaven.

You have said in your Word which cannot lie, "for whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (Romans 10:13)." "I have called upon your name exactly as you have said, and I believe that right now, I am saved.

*If you have sincerely prayed these words, which have been written out for you, and believed in your heart on the Lord Jesus Christ as your Savior, you are at this moment saved, and your name is written down in the Lamb's Book of Life. Congratulations!
You are a "new creature in Christ and a child of God!"

Now share the "good news"
by telling someone else about your salvation.
